

November 27, 2025: On the Ongoing Psyop Waged Against Our Home

After writing about the imminent threats against us yesterday evening, a delivery man came and unnecessarily pounded on our door (to ask us our address)(I specifically inquired why he pounded on our door and, while he shined a police-type flash light in my face, he answered that he wanted to see if ___ was our address.)(I specifically inquired about whether a signature was required and it was not.)

There was about one hour of separation between the time that I received this death threat and the pounding of someone at our front door. That is one example of how multiple 'parts' or 'parties' are being used (without their knowledge) to converge into one reality at our house. This is called 'compartmentalization of knowledge' or being given information on a 'need to know basis'. The 'right hand does not know what the left hand is up to.'

Now, this morning, Thanksgiving Day, the same vehicles began to stir past our home - not when I woke up, not when I began my day, but at the exact moment that I began 'tying' the legs of our turkey for cooking. This 'tying' is an ongoing theme of the messaging being sent into our home by this psyop. I am constantly being reminded that I am being 'tied' to the Trump administration's criminal campaign against America.

Continuing with the flow of messages (unwanted, and unstoppable) into our house: after preparing the turkey and placing it in the oven, I sat down to work on my dictionary definitions. Today, I am working through the word 'discriminate' as is used in the Sequence of Degree 9, Sign 10 - Treading and Walking. I specifically noted to my wife that I was working, today, on the difference between discriminating and distinguishing before I sat down to do my work.

Accordingly, the first two definitions in the dictionary were discussing these two ideas.

On the first definition for 'discriminate' which to make a distinction in favor of or against a person or thing on the basis of the group, class, or category to which the person or thing belongs, rather than according to actual merit (He discriminates against foreigners. He discriminates in favor of his relatives), vehicles drove by our house noisily advancing the definition as favorable.

On the second definition, which is to note or observe a difference; distinguish accurately (to discriminate between things), my computer was completely frozen and stopped from functioning while it presented me with the 'spinning' 'wheel' of being frozen or locked in place.

These are seemingly innocuous and minimal disruptions or changes that I am 'gathering' to make a point. However, these are the tools that are being used against me on a moment to moment basis which make up the entirety of an overall totalitarian message of oppression. I am doing my best to use words to describe the elements and aspects which make up a full environment which is produced by a myriad of ('secret') unseen and elusive methods.

I am constantly placed within this environment of noises, signs, and signals that will not stop pushing its 'mindset' of ideas into our life. I can tell the difference between a normal environment and my placement within their 'sphere' of influence.

In fact, I can describe exactly what has been helpful to pushing their sphere off of my life. These messages, my careful and diligent recordings of their efforts, and my communications to politicians and law enforcement offices has caused them to withdraw (a bit) off of my life while I am in normal areas of the public. However, this psyop is continuing to press on my life inside of my own home. Essentially, if I am not 'fighting' for my freedom, this 'personality' is pressing closer and closer into my home and life.

This is presented to me as an ongoing 'battle' for space in our environment where a gang of people from inside of the national security apparatus of America is running a totalitarian psychological operation against America and Americans to assert their dominance over our way of life.

I am given the distinct impression that this will continue until the 'target' gives up, succumbs to 'doing their will' and becomes a 'host of evil' as what can be metaphorically defined as a 'zombie' or a 'demon'. However, the victim fails to recognize that they are still going to be fully dominated and pushed by this force - even after they succumb to do 'its will.'

In fact, by participating in this overall scheme, the victim is giving the oppressors power over their life, and more power in the world. Since this totalitarian effort is seeking such power, it will only serve to embolden and increase these efforts against that victim's home.

Our best choice is to 'shine a light' on their evil - just like the 'delivery driver' so readily shined his light on me yesterday evening after I presented this as the solution to their evil efforts.

And now I bring the 'mirror' into this documentary recording of the 'haunting' that has established itself over our innocent home and lives.

On one last point to make: the definition from yesterday was 'ritual' and involved the presentation of ideas of 'rites' and 'religious rite' in numerous definitions. This 'rite' gathered a significant amount of vehicular activity to my home 'advancing' these ideas as favorable.

I have not made a mistake in characterizing these 'unseen' forces that are 'haunting' our world as a NAZIRITE 'demon' walking on earth.

nâzîr from H5144 (nâzar, A primary root; to hold aloof); separate, i.e. consecrated (separated as prince, separated as a Nazirite); hence (figuratively from 'separated as a Nazirite') an unpruned vine (like an unshorn Nazirite): [by false alliteration with Nazareth] separate, separated, vine undressed.

(Numerous examples of sounds and noise 'communications' occurred while preparing this record.)
